Dear Mr. Marshall:

The StarFire Fund of The Philanthropic Collaborative, Inc. (TPC) is pleased to make a grant of $5,000.00 to the Point Foundation, designated for the Whole Earth Review. Accordingly, enclosed is a check in the above amount, made payable to Point Foundation.

Acceptance of this check certifies that TPC provided no tangible benefits, goods or services, that this contribution will not be used to satisfy the payment of any pledge or other personal financial obligation on behalf of the named donors or advisors and that it will be used for charitable, religious, literary, scientific or educational purposes. It is not necessary to issue a tax receipt for this donation as TPC is a 501(c)(3) public charity. In addition, acceptance of this check confirms that Point Foundation is a nonprofit, tax-exempt, charitable organization as defined and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service, that such status is currently in full force and effect and that any change in that status will be promptly communicated. Please send me a copy of your most recent financial statements and your 501(c)(3) tax-exempt letter from the Internal Revenue Service.

If you have any questions regarding this grant, please feel free to call Marcia Townley at (212) 649-5941.

Sincerely,

Charles D. Terry
President

Dear Ms. Townley,

On behalf of Point Foundation and Whole Earth magazine, I would like to thank the Starfire Fund for it's generous gift to support the Fall issue.

Enclosed is a copy of the IRS letter confirming Point Foundation's 501(c)(3) status.

If you ever have any questions regarding how the magazine spends donated funds, or anything otherwise about the business, please do not hesitate to contact me.
